INDIANA RAIL ROAD CONGRATULATES PROMOTED VICE PRESIDENTS

Indianapolis, IN, Monday, January 9, 2023 –The Indiana Rail Road Company (INRD) announces two pivotal promotions within the executive ranks of the company: Shae LeDune to Vice President, Human Resources and Regulatory Compliance, and Bryant McCuan to Vice President, Engineering. Prior to this elevation, both LeDune and McCuan served as Assistant Vice Presidents of their respective departments.

LeDune has been with INRD for 13 years and joined the Human Resources department in 2017 where she has advanced through progressively more responsible positions. Her knowledge and advocacy toward the betterment of both the company and its employees make LeDune uniquely qualified to lead INRD’s Human Resource efforts.

McCuan succeeds Peter Ray, who retired at the end of 2022 after nearly 17 years with the company. McCuan steps into his role after joining INRD in July of last year, becoming familiar with the company and his team. His extensive engineering and rail experience make him a valuable leader for the Engineering department.

“These promotions are well deserved and position the company for strategic and focused expansion,” said Dewayne Swindall, president and CEO of The Indiana Rail Road.
